

Edna M. Johnson, 2nd Vice Chair, has an extensive senior level background which ranges from government relations, legislative and external affairs, non-profit program oversight and development, coalition building, community outreach and mobilization of urban residents, policy review, motivational speaking, consultancy, administrative oversight with an emphasis on education and community policing.

Edna currently serves as the Community Liaison and Housing Specialist in Brooklyn's 10th Congressional District, serves as the Representative's chief liaison between the constituents of the 10th Congressional district and all applicable housing bureaus. Edna has organized forums and meetings within the District of 600,000+ residents, of which over 72,000 live in public housing. Edna has directed a team of Community Liaisons who respond to a plethora of constituent needs and concerns, assembled community leaders and residents through progressive town hall meetings on hot button issues such as crime, health care, education, and affordable housing. Edna has assisted in the coordination of the Representative's senior citizen affairs and outreach programs.

Edna has also served in the 18th Senatorial district in Brooklyn, as the Legislative Assistant and Community Liaison, overseeing all aspects of community mobilization and responding to constituent concerns.

Edna has received a plethora of awards including the Community Service Award - Bridge Street Development Corporation; Community Service/Merit Certificates - New York State Assembly; New York State City Council; Congressional Award Policing and Community Outreach Award – 79th Precinct Community Council.

Edna has received many appointments, including that of Board Member - Community Board #3; New York City Health and Hospitals Committee - Community Board #3; Police, Fire, and Safety – Board Chair, Community Board #3; 79th Precinct Community Council – President.